Fifth Grade

It is essential that these standards be addressed in contexts that promote Social Science Analysis, civic responsibility, understanding global relationships, enhanced communication, making connections between the past, present and future, and the ability to evaluate historical and contemporary issues. Focus (to include but not limited to): U.S. History 1492-1786

Historical Knowledge

Relate significant events and eras in local, state, United States, and world history to past and present issues and developments.

5.1. Identify and compare historical Native American groups and settlements that existed in North America prior to contact with European exploration in the late fifteenth and sixteenth centuries.

5.2. Locate and examine accounts of early Spanish, French and British explorations of North America noting major land and water routes, reasons for exploration and the location and impact of exploration and settlement.

5.3. Explain the religious, political, and economic reasons for movement of people from Europe to the Americas and describe instances of both cooperation and conflict between Native American Indians and European settlers.

5.4. Identify and locate the 13 British colonies that became the United States and identify the early founders, describe daily life (political, social, and economic organization and structure), and describe early colonial resistance to British rule.

Historical Thinking

Use multiple perspectives, primary sources, context, and reasoning skills to understand the significance of events, people, ideas and institutions.

5.5. Create and interpret timelines showing major people, events and developments in the early history of the United States.

5.6. Use primary and secondary sources to formulate historical questions, to examine an historical account about an issue of the time, and to reconstruct the literal meaning of the passages by identifying who was involved, what happened, where it happened, and what events led to these developments and what consequences or outcomes followed.

Geography
Understand and use geographic skills and concepts to interpret contemporary and historical issues.

5.7. Identify, locate, and describe places and regions in the United States.

5.8. Use various types of maps to describe and explain the United States.

5.9. Explain migration, trade, and cultural patterns in the United States.

5.10. Describe how physical and political features influence events, movements, and adaptation to the environment.

5.11. Describe how technological developments, societal decisions, and personal practices influence sustainability in the United States.

Civics and Government

Understand and apply knowledge about governmental and political systems, and the rights and responsibilities of citizens.
